

Report Specification

OLM Reporting Services can provide experts with both Business and IT knowledge to:

- Identify your business requirements
- Recommend the best technology fit
- Develop a report requirements specification

This service is available for Actuate, Business Objects or Oracle Reports.

How Can Report Specification Help You?

- You will achieve a detailed report specification which you can use locally to develop your own reports or use in conjunction with OLM's Report Development Service
- Use our experience and knowledge of CareFirst data storage to ensure maximum benefit from your reports
- Efficient SQL resulting in maximum performance
- The implementation of a report specification procedure allows staff to follow a standard process for future reports and frees up valuable technology resource to focus on broader business projects
